

Adams County, Indiana

Suburban

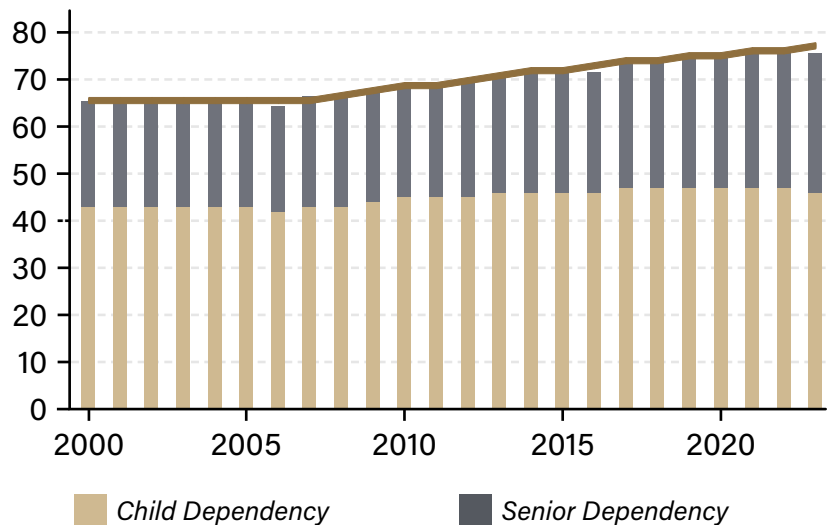

Age Dependency*

75

 in 2023

Age dependency is the ratio of dependent individuals (age 0-14 and 65+) to the working-age population (age 15-64). A higher age dependency ratio indicates a greater burden on the working population to support the dependent population. Adams County had 75 dependents per 100 working age residents.

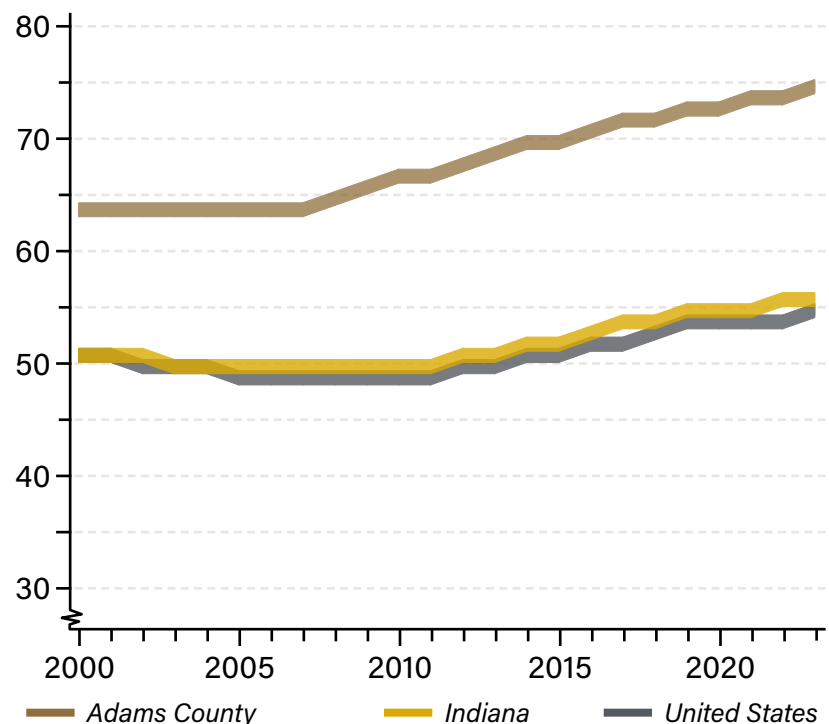

Age Dependency Trend (2000-2023)*

State & National Age Dependency Breakdown in 2023*

Age Dependency Trend Comparison (2000-2023)*

* Senior, child, and age dependency is rounded up based on total population.

Source: PCRD; U.S. Census Bureau Population Estimates; 2023 USDA Rural Urban Continuum Code